The overall activity level of this tour is a level 2. This means you like a balanced approach to travel. Walking two to three miles over the course of a day is no problem for you. You can handle a variety of terrains, from cobblestone streets to moderate hills with relative ease and without assistance. You can climb two flights of stairs with ease. Expect some full days balanced with free time to recharge or set out on your own adventure. You can handle altitudes up to 6,000 feet. While this level is appropriate for travelers that require mobility assistance devices, there could be times when you may have to sit out on some of the included activities.

Travel with a maximum of four groups of 44 travelers onboard this river cruise itinerary.

In Amsterdam, be prepared for climbing in/out of a canal boat, which requires agility.

River cruise ships will dock in Ghent at a specific new pier at the head of the Grootdok. The pier is 3 miles/5 kilometers away from the city center.

Bruges walking tour includes standing for longer periods of time, walking on cobblestone streets and uneven grounds, covering a walking distance approximately 2 miles/3 kilometers.

The walk from the port of Antwerp to the train station is approximately 1 mile/1.6 kilometers with an average of 30 minutes walking time in one direction.

During the walking tours in Amsterdam and Bruges, expect to navigate cobblestone streets and uneven grounds. You should also be prepared to stand for longer periods of time, up to three hours.

There may be 1 to 2 days on this tour when walking tours can cover 3 to 4 miles over uneven terrain.

For more information visit <https://gateway.gocollette.com/link/1401556>

*As there is no portage service at Amsterdam airport, you are required to handle your luggage from the terminal to the luggage truck on your arrival day. The walking distance between the luggage truck and the coach is approximately one quarter of a mile. Departing Amsterdam airport, you'll be responsible for handling your own luggage from the coach to the departures terminal.

While this tour is appropriate for travelers that require some mobility assistance devices, river cruises cannot accommodate travelers on wheelchairs or with restricted mobility due to gangway access, mooring requirements, and lack of elevator accessibility to every deck of the ship.

If you require any special assistance while on tour, please make us aware at time of reservation so the necessary request form can be sent to your attention.

This itinerary is subject to change due to unforeseen changes in water levels, delays at the locks, and other circumstances that may arise along the waterways. These changes may include items being missed during the tour; however, every effort will be made to substitute another attraction if possible.

Ports of call are subject to change based on pier availability and weather conditions.

While the ship is the primary mode of transportation on this tour, some daily excursions may use coaches, depending on the docking position.

If you choose to participate in either Choice on Tour to Delft or The Hague, please note that both will depart from the Rotterdam port by coach with approximately forty minutes of travel time in one direction.

The Van Gogh Museum and the Anne Frank House are the two most popular sites in Amsterdam. Tickets are in high demand and are difficult to obtain on the day or close to the day of visit. If you are interested, we recommend that you purchase tickets online in advance through the museums' official websites.

On day 2, embarkation begins at 9:00 a.m., service begins at noon, and cabins are available after 3:00 p.m.; on day 9, disembarkation is normally by 9:00 a.m.

Cabins are available on main (Ariane), middle (Alexia) and upper (Amalia) decks. Please note that river cruises are smaller ships and only have a finite number of each cabin category available. Specific categories are available on a first come first served basis. Every effort will be made to accommodate your cabin choice at the time of booking; however, if that cabin category is no longer available, the closest available category will be offered. Please inquire at time of booking for any upgrade fees which will apply to different cabin categories. Upgrades are available from Lower to the Stateroom, Deluxe Stateroom and Suite. All cabin upgrades are available on the Amalia and Alexia decks. The Ariane deck is connected to the Alexia deck by 12 steps, and there is no elevator access to this deck.
